You're looking at probably the dumbest trio of senators in recent history, plus Pia Cayetano. Why? Because one couldn't even blame Alan Peter Cayetano because he's Alan Peter Cayetano. He'll always be greedy, power hungry, and a sh*tty human being.

But what these three pulled off was absolute idiocy. Because by shifting allegiances, they handed Alan Peter Cayatano the keys to power and with it, the ability to trash the Senate just to keep himself as the senate president. Which the dipsh*t is actually doing right now by abandoning the very jobs people elected them for, just to protect a fugitive, a colleague accused of plunder, and a vice president who has faced impeachment twice in as many years. How disgusting is that?

Neophyte Camille Villar who has been infamously sworn in by her mother in their living room, made to run for god knows why, goes to the senate still looking like deer caught in headlights even a year into her job, hasn't done anything of note, and yet chose instead to be on the wrong side of history. What a way to start your senatorial career.

Same with tahimik lang sibling Mark Villar. Another unremarkable senator three years into the job who could've redeemed himself after promising a traffic-free Metro Manila by 2022, but no. Just a benchwarmer waiting for a chance to do exactly what? The Filipino people have no clue.

Then there's Loren Legarda who chose to side with Alan Peter because she was promised exactly what? We don't know. But if you have a son like Leandro, then any sweet talking devil like Alan Peter can manipulate you to just embrace the traitor label.

Sure, there's also Pia Cayetano. Alan's her baby brother so she was bound to jump ship sooner rather than later. Yet when we see JV Ejercito not exactly choosing to be on the side of Jinggoy, you'd start to conclude that nope, Pia is just the female version of Alan with acting skills that are just as bad.

So yes, the mere sight of Alan Peter Cayetano makes anyone want to throw up. But the real culprit behind what's happening to the Senate right now are a handful of dumb senators, their dumb decisions, and their willful ignorance in handing the reins of power to someone like Alan Peter Cayetano.

'SENATE WORK STOPPED BECAUSE THE PRESIDING OFFICER HIMSELF REFUSED TO WORK'

READ: The Solid Bloc 11 minority senators have released a joint statement criticizing the absence of the majority bloc during the Senate's scheduled session on Monday, saying the move halted Senate proceedings and delayed action on several pending measures.

The following is their statement:

SOLID BLOC 11: THIS IS NOT SENATE INDEPENDENCE BUT A BOYCOTT OF DUTY

"The Solid Bloc 11 minority senators were present today for the 5 p.m. resumption of session, ready to work, ready to vote on pending bills and ready to keep the Senate running, but the majority led by SP Cayetano chose not to show up.

They did not even have the courtesy to inform us when they ignored the rules, and could not extend the basic decency of telling the minority that they had no intention of convening.

Let us focus on the work, because the Senate has serious business before it, and if the majority wants to protest, deliver privilege speeches or

2026-06-02 07:12:03

Let us focus on the work, because the Senate has serious business before it, and if the majority wants to protest, deliver privilege speeches or defend its position, the proper place to do that is on the floor, not by making the chamber stand still.

Ang Senado ay hindi pag-aari ng iisang may hawak ng gavel. Institusyon ito ng taumbayan at napakadaming mahalagang panukala ang nabibinbin dahil sa drama ng mayorya.

Important measures were left hanging because of the majority's boycott, including the Magna Carta of Barangay Health Workers, the Anti-Hospital Detention Bill, the confirmation of generals before the Commission on Appointments and the bills granting Philippine citizenship to Bennie Boatwright III and Matthew James Ramos.

Let us call this for what it is: the claim that this is about Senate independence is false, because what happened today was about the rule of law, public accountability and a lawful process before the Ombudsman and the Sandiganbayan that no senator, no bloc and no presiding officer controls.

This is a boycott because of the arrest of Senator Jinggoy Estrada, and the public should not be asked to believe another convenient line from a leadership that has repeatedly twisted the truth.

2026-06-02 07:12:07

This is a boycott because of the arrest of Senator Jinggoy Estrada, and the public should not be asked to believe another convenient line from a leadership that has repeatedly twisted the truth.

Today was a step toward accountability in a controversy that the public has long demanded action on, and after years of people asking why nothing was happening in flood control investigations, it is unacceptable to suddenly call the rule of law an attack on the Senate.

Is Senate President Alan Cayetano now questioning the rule of law?

Sa totoo lang, ang gusto nila ay kampihan, hindi prinsipyo. Gusto nila sumama kami sa boycott, patahimikin ang Senado at gamitin ang minority para manatili ang Senate President sa puwesto habang iniiwasan ang tunay na test of numbers sa floor.

This may be the first time in decades that Senate work stopped because the presiding officer himself refused to work, because even during typhoons and the height of the pandemic, work was suspended only because of necessity or because systems still had to be set up, not because the leadership chose a boycott of duty.

2026-06-02 07:12:20

The public has every right to ask whether SP Cayetano is repeating what he did in the House of Representatives, when questions were raised about a leader refusing to step aside, refusing to convene and holding up proceedings when the numbers were no longer certain.

The question now is just as serious: will they do this again for the next two session days, and will they keep the Senate idle simply to avoid facing the numbers on the floor?

The Senate should open its doors, call the session to order and return to work, because no Facebook post, no appeal to institutional pride and no political drama can erase the basic duty of senators to show up, follow the law and serve the people.

And lastly, we call on the Filipino people to watch the Senate closely, because when an institution refuses to work, public vigilance becomes the people's first line of defense."

Naiyak ka para sa senador na pangatlong beses nang nahaharap sa kasong plunder. Grabe, ang lambot pala ng puso. Pang-MMK. Pang-hugot. Pang-"kawawa naman siya" kahit ang pinag-uusapan ay kapwa makapangyarihan na may abogado, convoy, privilege speech, at buong tropa sa Senado.

Pero noong ang mga taga-Dupax del Norte na ang nagmamakaawa? Noong mga residenteng takot mawalan ng tubig, palayan, kabuhayan, lupa, at karapatan sa maayos na konsultasyon ang nananawagan sa'yo? Noong bilang chair ka ng Senate Committee on Environment, Natural Resources and Climate Change, ikaw mismo ang dapat natural na lapitan sa ganitong isyu? Ayun, parang seen zone ang bayan.

May Senate Resolution No. 284 na nga, idinidiretso sa Environment Committee ang imbestigasyon sa mining conflict sa Dupax del Norte. May mga komunidad at katutubong nagtayo pa ng barricade dahil kailangan na nilang bantayan ang sariling lupa habang naghihintay sa mga dapat umaksyon. Nananawagan sila sa'yo noon, pero hindi mo

Singer-songwriter Taylor Swift announced on Tuesday her new original song "I Knew It, I Knew You" for the animated film "Toy Story 5."
"I've always dreamed of getting to write for these characters who I've adored since I was a 5-year-old kid watching the first Toy Story movie. I fell instantly in love with Toy Story 5 when I was lucky enough to see it in its early stages, and I wrote this song as soon as I got home from the screening. Sometimes you just know, right?" she said in her post.

A Salary on Hold Cannot Hold Back the Questions: Why Heidi Mendoza's Sharp Rebuttal Struck a National Nerve

June 2, 2026

When Senator Jinggoy Estrada announced that he was directing the Senate Secretary to put his salary on hold while he seeks to clear his name, the statement appeared designed to send a message: that he did not wish to benefit from public funds while facing serious public scrutiny.

But within hours, former COA Commissioner Heidi Mendoza delivered a response that was equal parts humor, satire, and accountability lecture—and it instantly captured public attention.

Her opening punchline was devastatingly simple: "Hindi mo na kailangang magbigay ng instruction. Nakapaloob na sa batas yun!"

In one stroke, Mendoza challenged the very premise of the announcement. The issue, she suggested, was not whether a salary would be

2026-06-02 08:22:48

In one stroke, Mendoza challenged the very premise of the announcement. The issue, she suggested, was not whether a salary would be received or withheld. The issue was whether symbolic gestures should be mistaken for substantive accountability.

That is why her statement resonated so deeply. It shifted the conversation away from optics and back to principles.

Public trust is not restored by headlines. It is restored through transparency, due process, compliance with the law, and the willingness of public officials to fully answer questions that the public has every right to ask.

Mendoza's sarcastic observation that Estrada has had controversies attached to his name across different eras of Philippine politics was not merely a joke. It was a reminder of an uncomfortable reality: public memory is longer than political messaging.

Filipinos have witnessed corruption scandals, plunder allegations, pork barrel controversies, and repeated cycles of promises of reform. As a result, many citizens have become [illegible]ptical of gestures that appear more symbolic than substantive.

Filipinos have witnessed corruption scandals, plunder allegations, pork barrel controversies, and repeated cycles of promises of reform. As a result, many citizens have become understandably skeptical of gestures that appear more symbolic than substantive.

Her most powerful line may have been the simplest: "May tunay kang dapat ibalik sa Nation." Whether one agrees with her or not, the statement distilled a broader public sentiment.

The debate is not about a senator's paycheck. The debate is about accountability. It is about whether public office remains a sacred trust rather than a platform for reputation management.

What made Mendoza's critique particularly effective was that she did not rely on anger alone. She used wit. She used rhyme. She used humor. Yet beneath the playful tone was a serious democratic principle: public officials do not earn credibility through declarations; they earn it through conduct. Trust is not granted because a politician announces a sacrifice. Trust is earned when institutions [illegible]mined, questions are answered, and accountability is embraced

Yet beneath the playful tone was a serious democratic principle: public officials do not earn credibility through declarations; they earn it through conduct. Trust is not granted because a politician announces a sacrifice. Trust is earned when institutions work, facts are examined, questions are answered, and accountability is embraced without conditions.

The final joke about being owed a drink and some pulutan may have drawn laughter, but the larger message landed with unmistakable force. Filipinos are increasingly demanding more than political theater. They want results. They want transparency. They want accountability that can be measured not in press releases, but in actions.

And that is why Mendoza's statement spread so quickly. It was not merely a clever comeback. It was a reminder that in a democracy, the public is no longer satisfied with gestures that look good on paper. Citizens want something more difficult, more meaningful, and ultimately more important: the truth, wherever it leads.

Despite the confrontation, the DILG Chief chose to take the high road and said: 'It's okay. I understand you're emotional'... It was nothing personal. Everyone became emotional."

Remulla could not immediately identify which of Estrada's daughters confronted him during the high-stakes incident. Senator Estrada has two daughters: Janella, who serves as the undersecretary for the National Authority for Child Care, and Julienne.

Hindi pareho ang walkout ng minority at ang pag-boycott ng majority.
Ang walkout ng minority was a parliamentary protest against the attempt to rush remote participation or remote voting without a clean process. Senate Rules mismo ang nagsasabing ang Committee on Rules ang may sakop sa rules of the Senate, parliamentary rules, at order and manner of transacting business. So kung rules ang gagalawin, bakit minamadali sa plenaryo? Bakit hindi muna dumaan nang maayos sa Committee on Rules, discussion, decision, and report?
Hindi iyan arte. Hindi iyan "onsehan." Iyan ang trabaho ng oposisyon: pigilan ang majority kapag gusto nitong gamitin ang numbers para gawing goma ang rules.
Remote voting is dangerous kapag minadali at hindi malinaw ang safeguards. Hindi lang iyan "Zoom meeting." Boto ng senador ang pinag-uusapan diyan. Kapag puwedeng bumoto nang wala sa plenaryo, dapat malinaw kung paano vine-verify ang identity, presence, quorum, intent, vote integrity, connectivity failures, access to debate, at kung may pressure or coaching habang bumoboto. Kung hindi plantsado ang rules, nagiging malabo ang pinaka-basic facts: sino ba talaga ang present, sino ang nakinig, sino ang bumoto, at valid ba ang boto? That is institutional damage. That is epistemic damage.
Kaya huwag mong ipantay ang walkout para pigilan ang procedural abuse sa boycott para takasan ang trabaho ng bayan. Yung una, depensa sa rules. Yung pangalawa, tantrum na bayad ng taxpayers.

Corpus Christi Sunday is coming this June 7, 2026!

The Solemnity of Corpus Christi, also known as the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ, is one of the most beautiful celebrations of our Catholic faith. On this sacred day, we honor the Real Presence of Jesus Christ in the Holy Eucharist — His Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity truly present in the Blessed Sacrament.

The Eucharist is not just a symbol. It is Jesus Himself, lovingly remaining with us in every Holy Mass, every tabernacle, and every Eucharistic adoration chapel around the world. Through the Eucharist, Christ nourishes our souls, strengthens our faith, forgives venial sins, and unites us as one Church.

Corpus Christi reminds us of the immeasurable love of God. Even after His Passion, Death, and Resurrection, Jesus chose to stay with us sacramentally so that we would never be alone. Every time we receive Holy Communion worthily, we receive the King of Kings into our hearts.

2026-06-02 08:27:07

This June 7, let us attend Holy Mass with deeper devotion and reverence. Let us spend time in adoration before the Blessed Sacrament and thank Jesus for the gift of the Holy Eucharist. May this solemnity renew our hunger for holiness and our love for Christ truly present in the Eucharist.

May we become living tabernacles of God's love, carrying Christ into our homes, schools, workplaces, and communities through our words and actions.

"O Sacrament Most Holy,
O Sacrament Divine,
All praise and all thanksgiving
Be every moment Thine." 🙏

READ: In a joint statement, minority senators strongly condemned the Senate majority led by Senate President Alan Cayetano for skipping the scheduled 5:00 PM plenary session on Monday, labeling the absence a "boycott of duty" rather than an act of institutional independence.

The minority group argued that the majority deliberately paralyzed the chamber to protest the recent arrest of Senator Jinggoy Estrada.

According to the Bloc, this unprecedented shutdown has left critical legislative measures hanging, prompting the minority to demand that the leadership stop the political drama, respect the rule of law, and immediately reopen the Senate to serve the public.

Let us call this for what it is: the claim that this is about recent arrest of Senator Jinggoy Estrada.

According to the Bloc, this unprecedented shutdown has left critical legislative measures hanging, prompting the minority to demand that the leadership stop the political drama, respect the rule of law, and immediately reopen the Senate to serve the public.

#PanayNews

Let us call this for what it is: the claim that this is about Senate independence is false, because what happened today was about the rule of law, public accountability and a lawful process before the Ombudsman and the Sandiganbayan that no senator, no bloc and no presiding officer controls.

This is a boycott because of the arrest of Senator Jinggoy Estrada, and the public should not be asked to believe another convenient line from a leadership that has repeatedly twisted the truth.

Senador na dumugo ang puwit na si Jinggoy Estrada AKA Jinkee Bottomesa, aaretuhin na matapos ilabas ng Saniganbayan Fifth Division ang warrant of arrest laban sa kanya hinggil sa kinakaharap niyang plunder case mula sa umanoy kickbacks sa flood control project nf DPWH na nagkakahalaga ng mahigit P573 milyon.

Hindi bailable o bawal magpiyansa si Jinkee. Ibig sabihin, mananatili siyang nakakulong habang nililitis ang kanyang kaso.

Kung maaaresto ang senador na may problema sa puwit, muling mababawasan ang Hudas 13 ng majority senators matapos magtago ng puganteng si Bato Dela Rosa.

Nangangahulugan ito na magiging 11 na lang ang mga kasamahan niya sa majority. Oras na may bumaligtad ulit sa kanila ay maaari nang mapatalsik sa pangalawang pagkakataon ang Kaldero King na si Alan Peter Cayetano, at makuha muli ng minority ang pwesto bilang majority.

Excited na ba kayo sa mga susunod pang eksena?

Bagama't hindi nagbukas ang sesyon ng Senado, pinakanta pa rin ng minority bloc ang choir na nakatakda sanang magtanghal sa plenaryo ngayong Lunes, Hunyo 1.

This may be the first time in decades that Senate work stopped because the presiding officer himself refused to work, because even during typhoons and the height of the pandemic, work was suspended only because of necessity or because systems still had to be set up, not because the leadership chose a boycott of duty.

The public has every right to ask whether SP Cayetano is repeating what he did in the House of Representatives, when questions were raised about a leader refusing to step aside, refusing to convene and holding up proceedings when the numbers were no longer certain.

The question now is just as serious: will they do this again for the next two session days, and will they keep the Senate idle simply to avoid facing the numbers on the floor?

The Senate should open its doors, call the session to order and return to work, because no Facebook post, no appeal to institutional pride and no political drama can erase the basic duty of senators to show up, follow the law and serve the people.

And lastly, we call on the Filipino people to watch the Senate closely, because when an institution refuses to work, public vigilance becomes the people's first line of defense."

'SENATE WORK STOPPED BECAUSE THE PRESIDING OFFICER HIMSELF REFUSED TO WORK'

READ: The Solid Bloc 11 minority senators have released a joint statement criticizing the absence of the majority bloc during the Senate's scheduled session on Monday, saying the move halted Senate proceedings and delayed action on several pending measures.

The following is their statement:

SOLID BLOC 11: THIS IS NOT SENATE INDEPENDENCE BUT A BOYCOTT OF DUTY

"The Solid Bloc 11 minority senators were present today for the 5 p.m. resumption of session, ready to work, ready to vote on pending bills and ready to keep the Senate running, but the majority led by SP Cayetano chose not to show up.

They did not even have the courtesy to inform us when they ignored the rules, and could not extend the basic decency of telling the minority that they had no intention of convening.

Let us focus on the work, because the Senate has serious business before it, and if the majority wants to protest, deliver privilege speeches or defend its position, the proper place to do that is on the floor, not by making the chamber stand still.

Ang Senado ay hindi pag-aari ng iisang may hawak ng gavel. Institusyon ito ng taumbayan at napakadaming mahalagang panukala ang nabibinbin dahil sa drama ng mayorya.

June 02, 2026 09:32:57 AM

Important measures were left hanging because of the majority's boycott, including the Magna Carta of Barangay Health Workers, the Anti-Hospital Detention Bill, the confirmation of generals before the Commission on Appointments and the bills granting Philippine citizenship to Bennie Boatwright III and Matthew James Ramos.

Let us call this for what it is: the claim that this is about Senate independence is false, because what happened today was about the rule of law, public accountability and a lawful process before the Ombudsman and the Sandiganbayan that no senator, no bloc and no presiding officer controls.

This is a boycott because of the arrest of Senator Jinggoy Estrada, and the public should not be asked to believe another convenient line from a leadership that has repeatedly twisted the truth.

Today was a step toward accountability in a controversy that the public has long demanded action on, and after years of people asking why nothing was happening in flood control investigations, it is unacceptable to suddenly call the rule of law an attack on the Senate.

Is Senate President Alan Cayetano now questioning the rule of law?

Sa totoo lang, ang gusto nila ay kampihan, hindi prinsipyo. Gusto nila sumama kami sa boycott, patahimikin ang Senado at gamitin ang minority para manatili ang Senate President sa puwesto habang iniiwasan ang tunay na test of numbers sa floor.

This may be the first time in decades that Senate work stopped because the presiding officer himself refused to work, because even during typhoons and the height of the pandemic, work was suspended only because of necessity or because systems still had to be set up, not because the leadership chose a boycott of duty.

Children, we all love our home, because we live there and we have many memories from there, because our parents, our sisters, our brothers are there. We also love our country. Our country is our home. We have many friends and comrades in this country. How many memories do we have of the brave men and women who stood up for us and defended this home for all of us? All of you who stood up for us bravely like a father and defended this country and this home. Now, as always, we want to defend this home and this country with all our might. We love our blood and our country, and we will stand until the end. If you see someone sad or worried at your door, kindly hold their hand and tell them that we are together. To whom it may concern, I did upload the recording I did days ago from IRIB Nahal, requested by @neoimoleon. It just got blocked for "violating terms and service" and "for being violent" even though it was barely any of that, but knowing my last quarrel with YouTube about this sorta thing (because their bot system kinda sucks lmao), I'm not even gonna make an attempt to reupload it, and I hope you all can understand the decision.

If it's curious to anyone, the IRIB Nahal recording has a propaganda piece during its continuity, and that's probably why it got blocked in the end, though it's barely not even as violent. The content transcribed was:

"Hello to all the good and lovely children of Iran. #Abante | Sinabi ni Senador Joseph Victor Ejercito na hindi siya aware sa sinabi ng kapatid na si Senador Jinggoy Ejercito Estrada na may ilang miyembro ng minority bloc na hina-harass ang senador para sumapi sa minority bloc at mapalitan ang liderato ng Senado.

Ayon kay Ejercito, hindi siya aware sa isyu na ito sa halip ay pinuna nito ang nangyaring pag-boycott kahapon ng majority bloc sa plenaryo sa senado sa hindi pagsipot dapat sanang sesyon kahapon na nakansela dahil ang mga minority bloc lang ang nasa loob ng plenaryo. | via Jojo Sicat

PRAYER FOR THE MONTH OF JUNE
O most Holy Heart of Jesus, fountain of every blessing, I adore you, I love you, and with lively sorrow for my sins I offer you this poor heart of mine. Make me humble, patient, pure and wholly obedient to your will. Grant, Good Jesus, that I may live in you and for you. Protect me in the midst of danger. Comfort me in my afflictions. Give me health of body, assistance in my temporal needs, your blessing on all that I do, and the grace of a holy death. Amen.

So 25 years later, Jinggoy's still waving goodbye to reporters after being involved with the same crime. First, after his family had to leave Malacañang in January 20, 2001 after EDSA 2 where his father Erap was eventually convicted of plunder six years later, in 2007.

Jinggoy was actually a co-accused in the plunder charge but was acquitted. So strike one.

Then came the OG of graft and plunder scandals in 2014 with the PDAF scam where he was again accused of pocketing ₱183 million in pork barrel funds through ghost NGOs. Again, he was eventually aqcquitted but not before spending jail time during the PNoy years, only to be released during the Duterte years.

Strike two and a half as the separate 11 counts of graft in this same scandal are still for the courts to decide.

Then yesterday he was whisked away for an even larger amount of ₱573 million which he allegedly plundered through ghost flood control projects orchestrated by former DPWH Usec and long-time Erap man Roberto Bernardo.

It's funny that while Jinggoy eventually got acquitted on the two prior plunder cases, it's uncanny how he keeps getting involved in such cases.

While enacting a law that would bar public officials repeatedly being accused of plunder even if they are acquitted would be unconstitutional and undemocratic, the voting public should treat these things as big red flags on any politician.

Because it gets you thinking, why are people like Jinggoy always getting into such cases across three decades and four presidents?

That's not coincidence anymore. That's probably plunder buried and defeated by political winds and the best lawyers money could buy.

The Hypocrisy of the DDS

They claim to hate oligarchs, yet they're perfectly fine with the Villars, a family that has used political power to enrich itself.

They claim to hate drugs, yet they turn a blind eye to Michael Yang, who faces public allegations of being a drug lord and POGO kingpin.

They claim to hate corruption, yet they defend Duterte's political allies who are now detained and facing graft and plunder charges.

The DDS aren't just misinformed—they're functionally ! ll!t3r@te hypocrites.

#Abante | Nananawagan ang ilang miyembro ng minority bloc sa hanay ng majority bloc na pumasok na sa sesyon ng Senado at sabay-sabay na silang magtrabaho para sa kapakanan ng taumbayan.

Ito ang naging tugon ng ilang mga miyembro ng minority bloc na si Senador Sherwin Gatchalian, at ang mgakapatid na Tulfo na sina Senador Raffy at Erwin Tulfo.

Tungkol naman sa panawagan ni Senate President Alan Peter Cayetano na magkaisa ang mga senador na ipakita ang kanilang pagkakaisa sa hindi aniyang makatarungan na agarang pagpapalabas ng warrant of arrest kay Senador Jinggoy Estrada na dahilan para kusang sumuko ang senador na una sanang aarestuhin ng CIDG subalit pumalag si SP Cayetano dahil kusa naman aniya na susuko si Estrada. | via Jojo Sicat

"ANG SENADO AY HINDI PAG-AARI NG IISANG MAY HAWAK NG GAVEL"

Ginpakamalaot sang Senate minority bloc ukon ang Solid Bloc 11 ang pag-boycott sang majority bloc sa senate session sa pagpamuno ni Senate President Alan Peter Cayetano.

Sa ila joint statement, ginpunto sang 11 ka mga senador nga ang Senado wala ginapanag-iyahan sang isa lang ka tawo nga nagauyat sang gavel ukon ang nagapungko nga Senate President.

Suno sa ila, institusyon ini sang mga Pilipino apang madamo sang na-pending nga mga hagna nga layi bangud sang drama sang mayoriya.

"Ang Senado ay hindi pag-aari ng iisang may hawak ng gavel. Institusyon ito ng taumbayan at napakadaming mahalagang panukala ang nabibinbin dahil sa drama ng mayorya," ang kabahin sang pahayag sang Solid Bloc 11.

Pahayag pa nila, nga ang luyag sang mayoriya, amo nga magdampiganay sila kag mag-upod ang minoriya sa boycott agod nga maghipos ang Senado kag usaron ang minoriya para mapabilin sa pwesto si Senate President Cayetano.

"Sa totoo lang, ang gusto nila ay kampihan, hindi prinsipyo. Gusto nila sumama kami sa boycott, patahimikin ang Senado at gamitin ang minority para manatili ang Senate President sa puwesto habang iniiwasan ang tunay na test of numbers sa floor," ang pahayag sang Solid Bloc 11.

Suno sa Solid Bloc 11, isa lamang ini ka boycott bangud sang pag-aresto Senator Jinggoy Estrada bangud sang kaso nga plunder.

"This is a boycott because of the arrest of Senator Jinggoy Estrada, and the public should not be asked to believe another convenient line from a leadership that has repeatedly twisted the truth," ang pahayag sang Solid Bloc 11.

"This is a boycott because of the arrest of Senator Jinggoy Estrada, and the public should not be asked to believe another convenient line from a leadership that has repeatedly twisted the truth," ang pahayag sang Solid Bloc 11.

Panawagan naman nila sa mayoriya, nga magbalik na sa trabaho bangud basic nga responsibilidad nila nga mga senador nga magpakita, sundon ang layi, kag serbehan ang mga tawo.

"This may be the first time in decades that Senate work stopped because the presiding officer himself refused to work," ang kabahin sang pahayag sang Solid Bloc 11.

"The Senate should open its doors, call the session to order and return to work, because no Facebook post, no appeal to institutional pride and no political drama can erase the basic duty of senators to show up, follow the law and serve the people," ang dugang pa nila nga pahayag.

ETHICS COMPLAINT VS. KIKO BARZAGA

JUST IN: National Bureau of Investigation Director Melvin Matibag has filed an ethics complaint against Cavite 4th District Rep. Kiko Barzaga. The complaint stems from Barzaga's social media posts during the recent Senate shooting incident, where he allegedly accused the NBI of assassination.

The NBI cites a violation of Article 154 of the Revised Penal Code of the Philippines (Unlawful use of means of publication and unlawful utterances), which strictly criminalizes the spreading of false news and unauthorized or unlawful public statements. | via Marianne Enriquez/ News5

"Mental health struggles can't always be seen, and not everyone who is hurting will ask for help. Let's always choose kindness, patience, and understanding. A simple check-in, a listening ear, or a few words of encouragement can mean more than we realize," Mutya wrote in her caption.

Just remember, forcing me to request is a huge disaster. It caused me to take a long hiatus or leave without saying anything. Just remember a long time ago when an anonymous person forced me to upload his request for a few days, again and again.

After i upload some videos, they send me a hate message and his chatbots send me d*ath threats because of his request that i already uploaded. That is why i took a long hiatus because of this situation.

So remember youngins, please request positive. So i can read it.

Naiyak ka para sa senador na pangatlong beses nang nahaharap sa kasong plunder. Grabe, ang lambot pala ng puso. Pang-MMK. Pang-hugot. Pang-“kawawa naman siya” kahit ang pinag-uusapan ay kapwa makapangyarihan na may abogado, convoy, privilege speech, at buong tropa sa Senado.

Pero noong ang mga taga-Dupax del Norte na ang nagmamakaawa? Noong mga residenteng takot mawalan ng tubig, palayan, kabuhayan, lupa, at karapatan sa maayos na konsultasyon ang nananawagan sa’yo? Noong bilang chair ka ng Senate Committee on Environment, Natural Resources and Climate Change, ikaw mismo ang dapat natural na lapitan sa ganitong isyu? Ayun, parang seen zone ang bayan.

May Senate Resolution No. 284 na nga, idinidiretso sa Environment Committee ang imbestigasyon sa mining conflict sa Dupax del Norte. May mga komunidad at katutubong nagtayo pa ng barricade dahil kailangan na nilang bantayan ang sariling lupa habang naghihintay sa mga dapat umaksyon. Nananawagan sila sa’yo noon, pero hindi mo pinansin. Pero kay Jinggoy, aba, may luha. May emosyon. May pa-close-up pa ang malasakit.

Ang galing din ng priority system, no? Kapag ordinaryong residente ang umiiyak dahil sa mining, tubig, lupa, at kabuhayan: pending. Kapag kapwa senador na accused sa plunder: trending ang awa.

Kung kaya mong maluha para sa isang three-time plunder accused, sana may natirang konting moisture para sa mga pamilyang walang camera, walang security escort, walang Senate privilege, at walang tropang magwawala kapag sila ang hindi pinakinggan.

Kawawa ang bayan kapag ang awa ng senador ay VIP seating para sa kapwa senador, pero standing room only para sa taumbayan.

JUNE IS REFERRED TO AS WEDDING MONTH

June is often popularly referred to as “Wedding Month” in many cultures, especially because it has long been associated with weddings, celebrations of love, and the beginning of married life. While this is a cultural tradition rather than an official Church designation, it beautifully reflects the human desire to begin marriage in a season of joy, light, and new beginnings.

In the Catholic faith, however, June carries an even deeper meaning: it is dedicated to the Most Sacred Heart of Jesus—the perfect model of divine love. This makes the idea of weddings in June especially meaningful, because Christian marriage is not only a celebration of love between two people, but a sacrament rooted in the love of Christ for His Church.

A Catholic wedding is more than a ceremony—it is a covenant. It is a lifelong promise shaped by grace, sacrifice, forgiveness, and faithfulness. In this way, every Christian marriage is meant to reflect the Sacred Heart: a love that is patient, self-giving, merciful, and enduring.

June weddings, when lived in faith, become more than tradition—they become a reminder that love is strongest when it is rooted in God. Couples are called not only to love each other emotionally, but to grow together in holiness, prayer, and unity with Christ.

We also look to the Holy Family of Nazareth—Jesus, Mary, and Joseph—as the model of every Christian home. Their life teaches us that true love is lived in humility, obedience to God, and daily faithfulness in ordinary life.

So while June is often called “Wedding Month” in culture, for Catholics it can also be seen as a month of holy covenant love, where human commitment meets divine grace. ❤️

May all marriages be blessed, strengthened, and centered on Christ this June and always.

Imagine walking into an important meeting where you're supposed to settle major issues for the entire country, only to find that half the room decided to just ghost the session.

That's exactly the kind of political drama that went down at the Philippine Senate yesterday, June 1, 2026, for Plenary Session No. 69, and it perfectly shows why these floor sessions actually matter to everyday Filipinos.

Normally, the Senate plenary floor is like the main stage of a theater. It's where all 24 senators are supposed to face the public, debate the fine print of new policies, and cast the final votes that turn proposals into actual laws. But on Monday afternoon, the system ground to a complete halt because of a classic numbers game. The 11 members of the Senate minority bloc showed up early, ready to go through the usual grind, from the opening national anthem and roll call to tackling heavy national issues.

The agenda was packed with items, starting with the Third Reading, the absolute final voting hurdle, for two hot-button naturalization bills that would grant Philippine citizenship to high-profile figures Bennie Francois Boatwright and Matthew James Ramos. Once a bill reaches this stage, the text is locked in, and it's just down to a roll-call vote.

But the real, granular work was supposed to happen during the amendment and Interpellation phases, which are the heart of the legislative process. Senators were scheduled to debate final tweaks on the Anti-Hospital Detention Bill, a crucial measure sponsored by Senator Risa Hontiveros aimed at cracking down on hospitals that illegally hold patients who can't pay their medical bills.

Right behind it was the long-awaited Magna Carta of Barangay Health Workers, which would finally secure better pay and protections for our frontline community health heroes.

To top it all off, high-profile privilege speeches from Senators Erwin Tulfo and Win Gatchalian were on the docket, ready to blow the whistle on urgent national issues.

To top it all off, high-profile privilege speeches from Senators Erwin Tulfo and Win Gatchalian were on the docket, ready to blow the whistle on urgent national issues.

But the 13 senators making up the majority bloc, led by Senate President Alan Peter Cayetano, simply didn't show up. Because rules state you need at least 13 senators present for a roll call to establish a quorum, the empty chairs meant the entire agenda was paralyzed. No voting on citizenship, no fixing the hospital detention laws, and no help for barangay health workers.

This no-show didn't happen in a vacuum; it was a domino effect from a chaotic few days of political fallout. Just hours earlier, majority Senator Jinggoy Estrada had surrendered to the police over a massive flood control corruption scandal.

At the same time, Senator Bato was still laying low, trying to avoid an arrest warrant from the International Criminal Court. To make matters worse, the two sides were already furious at each other because the majority had recently tried to pass a rule allowing senators to vote remotely, a move critics said was just a loophole to let fugitive or detained lawmakers keep power.

When the majority skipped out yesterday, the minority called it a petty boycott and a total abandonment of duty. Yet Senate President Cayetano jumped on social media to defend the move, claiming that letting the Senate "go quiet" was actually a strategic way to protect the Senate's independence from outside political attacks.

In the end, the whole mess proved that the Senate floor isn't just a room for speeches; it's the ultimate reality check for our government. When senators refuse to show up and face the music, the real victims aren't the rival politicians, but the regular citizens whose life-changing laws, from health worker benefits to human rights protections, get put on hold while the people in power play hide-and-seek.

Kaldero King Alan Peter Cayetano and Protempore Loren Legarda were both no where to be found yesterday!

It was Kaldero King who specifically stated last Wednesday that the Senate will resume at 5pm on monday, pero siya mismo ang no show, instead, nakipag away siya kahapon kay Remulla and nag-joyride kasama si Jinggoy.

Hindi po trabaho ng isang Senate President na ihatid ang isang kriminal.

I think the Filipino people should remind Mr Kaldero King na as Senate President, he has to attend to his actual functions sa senado!

He has the audacity to talk about Senate Independence, pero he forgot that he himself should be in the Senate to do legislative work.

Tang-ina, wala ka na ngang silbi, hindi ka pa nagpapakita! Bakit kasi hindi ka pa magbitiw!

Watch Mareng Winni's take below! We agree with her when she asked, "what is this?? Everything is waiting for this political circus to stop! "

Senators were seen crying yesterday as a colleague was being arrested for plunder.
This is in no way an indictment of the accused senator but I would like to remind our lawmakers...
Iyakan n'yo ang ninanakawang Pilipino.
Iyakan n'yo ang binabaha dahil sa nakawan sa flood control.
Iyakan n'yo ang gutom nating mga kababayan.
Get out of your bubble. Please.

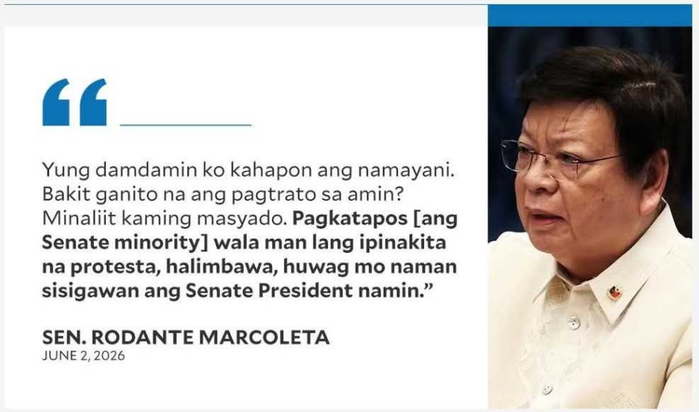
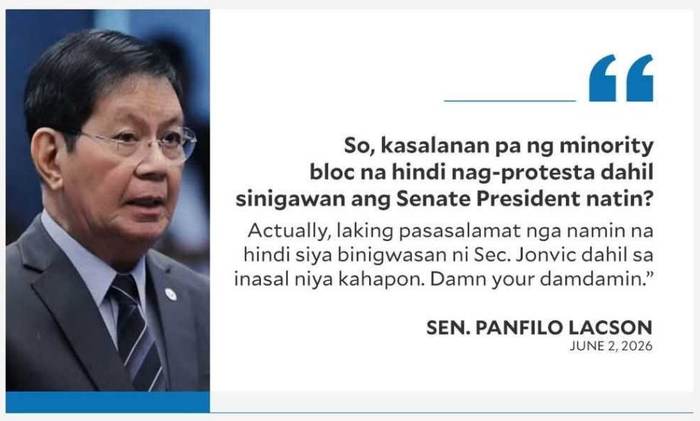
'DAMN YOUR DAMDAMIN'

Senator Panfilo Lacson fires back at Sen. Rodante Marcoleta's statement in an interview with dzBB Super Radyo, questioning the Senate minority bloc's lack of protest amid a heated incident between Senate President Alan Peter Cayetano and Interior Secretary Jonvic Remulla during Sen. Jinggoy Estrada's arrest.

Check the related story in our comments.



Yung damdamin ko kahapon ang namayani. Bakit ganito na ang pagtrato sa amin? Minaliit kaming masyado. Pagkatapos [ang Senate minority] wala man lang ipinakita na protesta, halimbawa, huwag mo naman sisigawan ang Senate President namin."
SEN. RODANTE MARCOLETA
JUNE 2, 2026



So, kasalanan pa ng minority bloc na hindi nag-protesta dahil sinigawan ang Senate President natin?
Actually, laking pasasalamat nga namin na hindi siya binigwasan ni Sec. Jonvic dahil sa inasal niya kahapon. Damn your damdamin."

The story resurfaced in early 2026 after a user on Bluesky shared the original photos with an AI-generated English translation, letting a much wider audience finally see just how wrong those subtitles were.

Camille Villar weeping over Jinggoy Estrada's legal drama is peak-nepotism crossover episode. It's hard to tell what's more synthetic, the performative tears, her family's real estate developments, or the murky liquid running through a PrimeWater pipe.

Simply because they are both part of the same elite political club where accountability is treated like a rare, terrifying disease. She isn't crying for justice, but out of pure panic because she is terrified that if the law can actually touch a political dynasty, the reality check might accidentally bounce over to the Villar empire next.

See, when your entire identity is built on being a billionaire's daughter handed a political career on a silver platter, you naturally empathize with other elite families. Seeing another legacy kid face the consequences of their own actions feels like a personal attack on her very existence, making her wonder if accountability is a virus that might soon threaten her family's habit of converting agricultural lands into master-planned Camella Homes.

Let's face it, Camille's political brand has the depth of a pre-selling condo brochure. Crying over Jinggoy is probably the most emotion she's shown one year out as a Senator.

Those tears are flowing much faster and cleaner than the actual water her family's PrimeWater utility delivers to furious, dry-tapped consumers across the country. It gives off major "rich girl discovers that laws occasionally apply to rich people" vibes, and the sheer shock of that realization is what broke her.

It takes a special kind of privilege to weep for a politician facing charges while thousands of everyday Filipinos are losing their livelihoods to aggressive commercial re-zoning and dealing with substandard, overpriced utilities.

Maybe she should save those tears for the farmers her family's businesses have displaced, or the households left with nothing but rusty trickles and high water bills, rather than wasting them on a guy who views a mugshot as a family portrait.

Camille, girl, wipe your face. The only thing more tragic than Jinggoy's rap sheet is your attempt to make his arrest about your feelings. Go build subdivision or privatize another local water district. It'll make you feel better.

Veteran broadcast journalist Karen Davila has reacted to emotional scenes during the enforcement of the Sandiganbayan-issued arrest warrant against Senator Jinggoy Estrada, who is facing graft and plunder charges over his alleged involvement in the flood control kickback scheme.

"Iyakan n'yo ang ninanakawang Pilipino. Iyakan n'yo ang binabaha dahil sa nakawan sa flood control. Iyakan n'yo ang gutom nating mga kababayan," Davila wrote on X (formerly Twitter). | RLL/#IMTNEWS

ST. ANTHONY OF PADUA, HELP US FIND OUR PURPOSE THIS JUNE

As we enter the beautiful month of June, a month especially dedicated to the Sacred Heart of Jesus, we turn to St. Anthony of Padua and ask for his prayers and guidance as we seek to discover our true purpose and mission in life.

Many people today struggle with confusion, fear, uncertainty, and the feeling of being lost. Some are searching for direction, while others are trying to understand God's plan for their future. In the midst of all these questions, St. Anthony reminds us that our lives are never meaningless in the eyes of God. Each of us has been created with a purpose, called to love, to serve, and to become witnesses of Christ in the world.

St. Anthony of Padua dedicated his entire life to preaching the Gospel and bringing people closer to Jesus. Though he was gifted with great wisdom and knowledge, he remained humble and obedient to the Lord. He used his talents not for personal glory, but to glorify God and help others find the truth. His example teaches us that discovering our mission begins when we place God at the center of our lives.

This June, may we ask St. Anthony to guide our hearts toward the path God has prepared for us. May he help students discern their vocation, workers find meaning in their labor, families grow in love and unity, and young people discover the dreams that God has planted in their hearts. May he help us realize that our purpose is not measured by wealth, popularity, or success in the eyes of the world, but by how faithfully we follow Christ and love others.

As we honor the Sacred Heart of Jesus this month, let us also pray for hearts that are willing to listen to God's voice. Sometimes God speaks through prayer, through silence, through struggles, and even through unexpected moments in life. St. Anthony encourages us to trust God patiently, even when we do not yet understand the whole journey.

Jun 02, 2026 15:41:07

O dear St. Anthony, help us find not only the things we have lost, but also the purpose and mission that God has lovingly prepared for us. Lead us closer to Jesus each day, strengthen our faith, and guide us toward a life filled with meaning, holiness, and love.

Amen.

DUTERTE SUPPORTERS SPREAD FALSE INFORMATION

Congressman Kiko Barzaga claimed that "multiple" people died after several gunshots were heard inside the Senate building on Wednesday evening, May 13.

In a now-deleted post, Barzaga wrote: "Multiple dead after gunfight within Senate building, will confirm later."

The lawmaker's post was shared by thousands of his followers, including pro-Duterte vlogger Krizette Chu.

In a video posted on Thursday, May 14, the Department of Information and Communications Technology (DICT) warned the public against spreading fake news and inciting violence following the Senate chaos.

"Sinumang mapapatunayang nagambag o nagudyok sa pagpapakalat ng maling impormasyon online at karahasan ay hindi palalagpasin ng CICC [Cybercrime Investigation and Coordinating Center] at sisiguraduhin na mapapatawan ng karampatang parusa." | RLL/

House of Representa-thieves: Butasang Pambulsa

Řářě Oňě · 17h ·

Magkwento lang ako.

Kita n'yo 'yung mga litrato?

Sa kaliwa, kampanya ni Camille Villar. Sa kanan, si Heidi Mendoza.

Hindi mo kailangan ng political science degree para makita ang diperensya. Kahit tambay sa kanto, tindera sa palengke, estudyanteng nagtitipid sa pamasahe, o nanay na nagba-budget kung bigas ba muna o kuryente, gets agad ang eksena.

'Yung nasa kaliwa, kampanyang may budget na parang hindi nauubos: TV ads, malalaking entablado, at makinaryang kayang gumising ng barangay kahit tulog pa ang konsensya ng ilan.

'Yung nasa kanan, kandidatang minsan nagko-commute lang, minsan natutulog sa terminal habang naghihintay ng masasakyan, unang araw ng kampanya naglalakad sa hometown niya sa Quezon para makipagkamay at makipag-usap sa tao.

Walang bonggang rally.

Walang pa-confetti.

Walang paandar na akala mo product launch ng bagong condo.

Meron lang tiwala.

Meron lang paa.

Meron lang pawis.

Meron lang pawis.

At minsan, handwritten na karatula ng volunteers.

Doon mo maiisip: ang eleksyon pala sa Pilipinas, hindi lang labanan ng plataporma. Labanan din ito ng kapal ng bulsa.

Sa mas akademikong salita, campaign finance asymmetry ito. Sa mas simpleng salita: 'yung isa may megaphone, 'yung isa paos na kakasigaw.

Para itong boxing na ang isa, naka-gloves, complete gear, may sponsor, may nutritionist, may ring entrance pa. 'Yung kalaban, dumating nang nakatsinelas, may baong tubig sa tumbler, at pinipilit pa ring lumaban dahil may prinsipyo.

Ngayon, tingnan n'yo rin ang credentials.

Sa isang banda, may kandidatong ang apelyido pa lang, may kasamang real estate brochure. Sa kabila, may babaeng ang puhunan ay track record, talino, integridad, at karanasang hindi imbento ng campaign jingle.

Isang babaeng kinilala sa mundo ng audit, accountability, at paglaban sa corruption. 'Yung tipong kaya tumingin sa papel at makita ang kasinungalingan sa pagitan ng mga numero. Hindi lang marunong magsalita ng "good governance," kundi alam kung paano habulin ang pera, himayin ang anomalya, at pangalanan ang mali.

Tapos tatanungin ka ngayon: paano mananalo ang kandidatong walang pera at walang makinarya laban sa kandidatong galing sa political and economic dynasty?

Ang sagot: napakahirap.

Ang sagot: napakahirap.

At 'yan ang masakit na parte.

Kasi gusto nating lokohin ang sarili natin na equal playing field ang eleksyon. Gusto nating isipin na basta magaling ka, may tsansa ka. Basta malinis ka, may laban ka. Basta sincere ka, mariringig ka.

Pero paano ka mariringig kung 'yung katabi mo may sampung megaphone, may airtime, may makinarya, may billboard mula bundok hanggang baybayin, samantalang ikaw, nakikiusap kung saan kukuha ng pang-print ng posters?

Hindi ito simpleng kasalanan ng botante. Hindi rin ito simpleng "bakit kasi iyon ang binoto?"

Mas malalim ang problema.

Ito ang sakit ng sistemang ginagawang produkto ang kandidato at ginagawang sales funnel ang demokrasya.

Sa libro, tawag dito attention economy at manufactured visibility. Sa kanto, mas simple: kung sino ang laging nakikita, siya ang mas madaling maalala. At sa eleksyon, ang pamilyar, minsan napagkakamalang qualified.

Late akong nakialam noon sa campaign ni Heidi, pero sapat ang nakita ko para maintindihan ang bigat ng laban.

Nakita ko ang hirap.

Hindi 'yung hirap na ginagawang aesthetic sa campaign video. Totoong hirap. 'Yung may nag-iisip saan kukuha ng pang-print, pang-logistics, at budget para sa social

Jun 02, 2026 15:47:34

Hindi ’yung hirap na ginagawang aesthetic sa campaign video. Totoong hirap. ’Yung may nag-iisip saan kukuha ng pang-print, pang-logistics, at budget para sa social media ads. Paano pagkakasyahin ang kakarampot para umabot sa mas maraming tao. Paano bubuhayin ang kampanya gamit ang sipag, dasal, at kapal ng mukha sa paghingi ng tulong—hindi para sa sarili, kundi para sa laban.

Bayanihan talaga.

Kawang-gawa, literal.

May volunteers na ang ambag ay oras. Talent. Printer. Pamasahe. Pagod.

At sa bansang ito, minsan ang pinakamalungkot na sentence ay ito:

ang matinong kandidato, umaasa sa ambagan; ang makapangyarihan, umaasa sa sistema.

Kaya huwag na tayong masyadong magtaka kung bakit paulit-ulit nananalo ang mga galing sa dynasty, mayamang apelyido, at makinaryang kayang bilhin ang atensyon ng publiko.

Ang mas dapat nating itanong: paano nila binabawi ang ginastos?

Dahil walang bilyonaryong gumagastos nang walang inaasahang balik. Hindi charity gala ang eleksyon. Kapag sobrang laki ng puhunan, natural lang itanong kung saan huhugutin ang ROI.

At ang nakakatakot, madalas hindi sa kanila kinukuha ang kabayaran.

Kundi sa bayan.

Sa budget.

Sa proyekto.

Sa policy.

Sa impluwensiya.

Sa access.

Sa pabor.

Kaya kapag may nagsasabi na “eh nanalo naman kasi mas gusto ng tao,” gusto ko ring itanong: gusto ba talaga ng tao, o iyon lang ang paulit-ulit na naipakita sa kanila?

Dahil sa bansang binabaha ng ads at apelyido, hindi sapat ang galing. Kailangan mo ring mabuhay sa ingay.

At doon lalong lumalaki ang respeto ko sa volunteers na lumaban para kay Heidi.

Alam nilang mahirap.

Alam nilang kulang sa pera.

Alam nilang dehado.

Alam nilang ’yung kalaban, hindi lang isang kandidato—kundi isang buong sistemang pabor sa may pangalan, may yaman, at may mana.

Pero lumaban pa rin.

Pero lumaban pa rin.

Hindi dahil sigurado ang panalo.

Kundi dahil may mga laban na dapat sinasalihan kahit alam mong madadapa ka.

At siguro iyon ang mas malaking kuwento rito.

Hindi lang ito kuwento ng isang kandidatong kapos sa pera. Kuwento ito ng bansang sinanay na humanga sa laki ng entablado kaysa sa bigat ng integridad. Bansang tinuruan ng sistema na unahing kilalanin ang mukha bago siyasatin ang laman.

Masakit aminin, pero totoo:

sa Pilipinas, maraming matinong tao ang puwedeng tumakbo, pero hindi lahat may kakayahang ipanalo ang sarili laban sa pera.

Iyan ang structural inequality ng ating eleksyon. Hindi pantay ang simula. Hindi pantay ang mikropono. Hindi pantay ang daan papunta sa tainga ng publiko.

Kaya sa 2028, sana mas malinaw na sa atin ang leksyon.

Ang laban, hindi magsisimula sa filing of candidacy. Magsisimula ito ngayon: sa pagpapakilala, sa pagbuo ng volunteer network, sa maliit pero tuloy-tuloy na ambagan, sa paggawa ng content, sa pagkontra sa disinformation, at sa pagdadala ng pangalan ng matinong kandidato mula Facebook hanggang palengke, mula group chat hanggang barangay.

Kasi ang dynasty, hindi natutulog. May machinery sila habang tayo, minsan naghihintay pa ng official campaign period bago gumalaw.

Kung gusto natin ng gobyernong may utak, gulugod, at dangal, hindi sapat ang magreklamo pagkatapos ng bilangan. Kailangan nating tumulong bago pa ang botohan.

Pondohan natin.

Ikampanya natin.

Ipagtanggol natin.

Ipakilala natin.

Ipanalo natin.

Dahil kung pababayaan nating pera lang nang pera ang manalo, huwag na tayong magulat kung interes lang din ng may pera ang maghahari.

Sa 2028, tulungan natin ang mga kandidatong walang yaman pero may kakayahan. 'Yung walang makinarya pero may prinsipyo. 'Yung walang bilyones pero may tunay na silbi.

Dahil ang demokrasya, kapag pinabayaan, hindi namamatay agad. Nilalamon muna siya ng dynasty, budget, billboard, at apelyidong paulit-ulit hanggang akala natin iyon na ang natural.

At ang kinabukasan, hindi dapat laging napapanalo ng may pinakamalaking resibo sa printing press.

Respectfully submitting herewith the result of verification of supposed shutting-off of air-conditioning incident at the Senate Session hall on 1 June 2026.

Please be informed that upon receiving reports of sudden rise in temperature inside the Session Hall around 6:00 PM of even date, the Aircon Maintenance Unit inspected the centralized air-conditioning system housed in the Senate premises, and coordinated with the Government Service Insurance System (GSIS) where power supply of Air Handling Unit (AHU) electrical panel boards are located.

The GSIS informed the Senate that an electrical circuit breaker located at GSIS tripped around 5:30PM on even date. Upon checking, some other AHUs on the Ground Floor and Third Floor experienced the same power issue. The Senate centralized air-conditioning was restored around 6:20PM.

The Senate awaits an official incident report from the GSIS.

SUBJECT : SUPPOSED INTERNET OUTAGE
DATE : JUNE 2, 2026

Per your instruction to submit a report on the supposed internet outage at the Session Hall on June 1, 2026, we confirm that there was NO disruption whatsoever of internet services at any given time, including 5:00 – 7:00 pm when the Session Hall was used.

Based on our monitoring, wireless internet traffic was actually at its peak during this period, with the wireless access point located at the Session Hall recording the highest level of activity. This indicates that users were actively connected and utilizing the Wi-Fi network.

Furthermore, if an internet outage had occurred, the RUCKUS Cloud-based Controller, which manages and monitors the Senate Wi-Fi network, would have automatically generated alerts via SMS and email notifying us that the wireless access points had lost connectivity to the internet.

Attached are the wireless internet traffic charts and monitoring reports confirming that there was no internet service interruption on June 1, 2026.

This means there will be no session again like yesterday, June 1, due to a lack of quorum. | via Marc Cayabyab

TENSYON SA SENADO

Matindi ang tensyon ngayon sa Senado, ayon kay Sen. Erwin Tulfo. Kasunod ito ng naganap na boycott sa sesyon ng Senado kahapon, June 1.

Ayon kay Tulfo, nagalit ang kabilang panig dahil sa pagkaaresto kay Sen. Jinggoy Estrada.

Excuse me, Sen. Robin. Huwag nyo nga akong gamitin sa baluktot nyong naratibo. Acquitted na ako sa hinarap kong mga gawa-gawang kaso. Napakalayo ng sitwasyon ko sa pinasakay mong fugitive from justice na si Sen. Bato.

Saka neutralizing drug lords talaga? Sabihin nya yan sa pamilya ng libo-libong biktima ng EJK. Ipaliwanag nya yan sa ICC.

Ranking ng Performances: Senate Acting Olympics, Luha Para sa Makapangyarihan Edition

Criteria: luha, delivery, facial mobility, entrance, supporting presence, emotional continuity, family legacy in public performance, and overall contribution to the great national art form known as “umiiyak para sa kapwa makapangyarihan.”

4. Imee Marcos — Best in “May Emergency Pero Naka-Lullaby”

May script. May eksena. May “nagkakaputukan sa Senado.” May plunder-adjacent melodrama. Pero ang delivery? Parang nagbabasa ng announcement sa village Viber group na “may nawawalang pusa.”

Dapat high-stakes thriller, pero naging guided meditation.

May konting luha raw para kay Jinggoy, pero hindi masyadong nakagalaw ang mukha. Hindi natin alam kung dahil sa emotional restraint, Senate lighting, or face card na naka-lock sa museum preservation mode dahil sa formaline este botox.

Final verdict:
Hindi nahasa ng Daryl Yap Cinematic Universe. Sayang. May historical revisionism training na, pero kulang sa facial mobility workshop.

Score: 6/10
Award: Best Monotone in a Political Distress Scene

3. Loren Legarda — Best Supporting Actress in a Committee Room Drama

Hindi nagpahuli si madam. Two acting moments agad.

Una, may actual luha habang nagsasalita. Controlled. Elegant. Pang-Cultural Center. Hindi siya nagwala; she shimmered in institutional sadness.

Pangalawa, habang “umiiyak” si Pia, naka-supporting actress mode si Loren. Subtle. Tahimik. Parang veteran actress na alam kung kailan papasok sa frame kahit wala siyang linya.

Pero ang tunay na third act: nung sinabihan si Kiko tungkol sa “Noted” scene noong 2004. May crack sa boses. May historical trauma. May Senate throwback. May emotional continuity. Aba, hindi nagpahuli ang lola mo.

Final verdict:
Hindi siya main character sa eksena, pero alam mong may nomination siya sa FAMAS ng Factional Drama.

Score: 7.8/10
Award: Best Supporting Luha With Archival Reference

2. Pia Cayetano — Best Entrance, Best Hikbi, Best “Hindi Niyo Kasi Kinamusta”

Ito ang may blocking. May galit. May paghikbi. May “hindi niyo kasi kinamusta.” May dramatic grievance. May entrance na pang-telenovela: “Pumasok ako dito hindi lang bilang senador, kundi bilang taong hindi kinamusta.”

Ang problema: medyo walang luha. Ang daming vocal texture, pero kulang sa hydration. Parang umiyak ang diaphragm pero hindi na-brief ang tear ducts.

Pero in fairness, ang entrada? Winner. Ang timpla? Galit na may tampo. Tampo na may entitlement. Entitlement na may parliamentary privilege.

Final verdict:
Kung luha lang ang basehan, kulang. Pero kung acting choice ang usapan, may commitment. Hindi siya basta umiyak; nagsumbong siya sa buong sambayanan na hindi siya kinamusta.

Score: 8.5/10
Award: Best Actress in a Non-Crying Crying Scene

1. Camille Villar — Breakthrough Performance: Baby Girl Tears for Jinggoy

Hindi nagpahuli ang nepo baby of the season. Very baby girl ang iyak. Very “God bless Jinggoy and his family” habang naglalakad. Simple lang ang eksena: may kasamang senator facing serious legal trouble, may cameras, may hallway, may soft sadness, may walk-and-cry choreography.

Minimal dialogue. Maximum effect.

At dito natin nakikita ang evolution ng Villar School of Public Performance. Kasi kung ang nanay niya ay ibang atake — naglalakad habang kumakaway sa lupa, or minsan parang nagwawala habang naglalakad, very kinetic, very land development performance art — si Camille naman ang soft launch version. Hindi siya sumugod. Hindi siya nag-flail. Hindi siya kumaway sa lupa. She chose restraint. Baby girl grief. Hallway melancholy. Quiet luxury tears for Jinggoy.

Hindi siya nag-overexplain. Hindi siya nag-lecture. Hindi siya nag-constitutional crisis monologue. Dumaan lang siya, umiyak, nagpa-bless kay Lord para kay Jinggoy, at umalis na parang may trailer drop ang Villar Studios.

Final verdict:
Fresh face. Fresh tears. Fresh reminder na sa Senado, mas mabilis ang luha para sa kapwa makapangyarihan kaysa sa ordinaryong Pilipinong ilang taon nang umiiyak sa bills, presyo, ospital, trabaho, at hustisya.

Award: Best New Actress in a Plunder-Adjacent Hallway Scene

Overall Champion: Camille Villar

Dahil sa Senate Acting Olympics, hindi sapat ang umiyak. Kailangan marunong kang umiyak para sa tamang tao: preferably kapwa makapangyarihan, kapwa protektado, kapwa may camera angle.

At ang pinakamalaking winner?

Hindi ang bayan.

Ang winner ay ang luha: selective, well-lit, and very available kapag ang iniiyakan ay hindi mahirap.

SOLID BLOC 11: ALAN PETER CAYETANO RESIGN!

What happened today was a clear abandonment of responsibility, a dereliction of duty, and a blatant disregard of the rules that govern this institution, because the Senate cannot be made to stop working simply because its presiding officer refuses to lead.

Under Rule XIV, Sec. 41 of the Rules of the Senate, the Senate President may postpone the holding of the session AFTER consultation with the Majority Leader AND the Minority Leader. That rule was violated. This is not merely a procedural lapse—it is a direct violation of the Rules of the Senate and a serious disrespect for the institution and the Filipino people.

Senate President Alan Peter Cayetano SHOULD RESIGN as he has shown that he cannot function as the leader of the Senate.

SACRED HEART OF JESUS, HAVE MERCY ON US ❤️🙏

Sacred Heart of Jesus, whose compassion never fails and whose mercy knows no limits, look kindly upon us and hear the prayers we humbly place before You.

In the midst of our struggles, anxieties, and hidden burdens, remind us that we are never alone. When our hearts grow weary and life feels overwhelming, draw us closer to Your loving Heart that overflows with peace, comfort, and understanding. You see every tear, every silent battle, and every prayer whispered in faith.

Most Sacred Heart of Jesus, heal the wounds within us, strengthen us in our weakness, and renew the hope that fades during difficult times. Teach us to trust fully in Your mercy, knowing that no pain is too heavy for You to carry and no prayer is ever ignored by Your loving Heart.

May Your Sacred Heart be our refuge in trials, our consolation in sorrow, and our light in moments of darkness. Guide our paths, bless our families, and keep us always close to You.

We surrender our hearts, our worries, and our entire lives into Your compassionate care.

Sacred Heart of Jesus, have mercy on us. Amen.

SENATE UNITS ON AIRCON AND INTERNET ISSUES

Naglabas ng report ang Management Information Systems (MIS) Service at Maintenance and Physical Facilities Service (MPFS) units ng Senado kaugnay sa umano'y pagpatay sa internet at aircon sa loob ng plenaryo nitong Lunes, June 1.

Anila, nagkaproblema sa electrical circuit breaker sa GSIS bandang 5:30 p.m. Nakaranas umano ng kaparehong power issue ang ilan pang air handling units sa ground floor at third floor ng Senado nang tingnan ito. Naibalik ang centralized air-conditioning ng Senado bandang 6:20 p.m.

Nilinaw din nilang walang disruption sa internet services sa Senado kabilang na sa mga oras sa pagitan ng 5 p.m hanggang 7 p.m. nang ginamit ang session hall. I via #MOJO Marymon Reyes

The Oregon State Capitol houses the legislature of the U.S. state of Oregon and the offices of the state governor and other officials. It is located in the state capital, Salem. Built from 1936 to 1938 and expanded in 1977, the current building is the third to house the Oregon state government in Salem, with the earlier ones destroyed by fire. New York architects Trowbridge & Livingston conceived its Art Deco stripped classical design in association with Francis Keally. The Public Works Administration partially financed construction; the building's central portion cost $2.5 million. The wings, which doubled the building's floor space, were added as part of the 1977 expansion. Much of the interior and exterior is made of marble. The Oregon State Capitol was placed on the National Register of Historic Places on June 29, 1988. The grounds contain artwork, fountains, and flora, including the state tree (the Douglas fir) and

'IS ACCOMPANYING SENATOR ESTRADA MORE IMPORTANT THAN PRESIDING OVER A SENATE SESSION?'

REWATCH: Former Socioeconomic Planning Secretary Winnie Monsod criticized Senate President Alan Peter Cayetano for failing to show up in the June 1 plenary session.

Monsod was among the guests who waited inside the session hall for two hours as majority senators did not appear, preventing the Senate from convening.

Monsod's group carried a banner that read: "Serve with integrity!"

Cayetano accompanied arrested Senator Jinggoy Estrada to Camp Crame. He later on urged the minority bloc to join the majority in keeping silent as part of the fight for Senate independence. | Eimor Santos, newswatchplus.ph

ALAN PETER CAYETANO RESIGN!
What happened today was a clear abandonment of responsibility, a dereliction of duty, and a blatant disregard of the rules that govern this institution, because the Senate cannot be made to stop working simply because its presiding officer refuses to lead.
Under Rule XIV, Sec. 41 of the Rules of the Senate, the Senate President may postpone the holding of the session after consultation with the Majority Leader and the Minority Leader. That rule was violated. This is not merely a procedural lapse—it is a direct violation of the Rules of the Senate and a serious disrespect for the institution and the Filipino people.
Senate President Alan Peter Cayetano SHOULD RESIGN as he has shown that he cannot function as the leader of the Senate.

‘MAG-RESIGN KAYO AT MAGING VLOGGER’

Senator Erwin Tulfo criticized Senate President Alan Peter Cayetano for addressing issues surrounding the Senate through Facebook Live instead of personally attending the chamber’s session.

Tulfo, along with other members of the minority bloc, called on Cayetano to step down from his post, arguing that he had failed to fulfill his responsibility to lead the Senate.

During his remarks, Tulfo questioned Cayetano’s decision to communicate through social media rather than appear before fellow lawmakers.

"Vlogger po ba si Sen. Alan Cayetano? Senador po kayo, binoto kayo ng tao. Hindi kayo vlogger. Kung vlogger lang kayo, mag-resign kayo at maging vlogger. Mag-live ka nang mag-live hanggang gusto mo,” Tulfo said.

Under Rule XIV, Sec. 41 of the Rules of the Senate, the Senate President may postpone the holding of the session after consultation with the Majority Leader and the Minority Leader. That rule was violated. This is not merely a procedural lapse—it is a direct violation of the Rules of the Senate and a serious disrespect for the institution and the Filipino people.
Senate President Alan Peter Cayetano SHOULD RESIGN as he has shown that he cannot function as the leader of the Senate.

Sinubukan namin i-send ng screenshot picture sa isang chatboot, ngunit may ibang lumabas na details or something.

Ang logo nito ay i-rerebrand sana sa TV5 bilang One TV since 2020, ngunit hindi na tuloy.

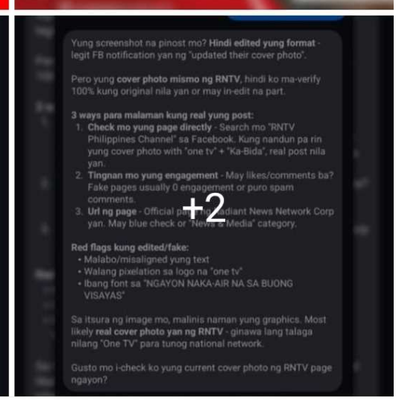
Ang inyong Ka-Bida sa bawat
balita, drama, kasiyahan at serbisyo publiko
NGAYON NAKA-AIR NA SA BUONG VISAYAS!
CHANNEL 25
CHANNEL 26 & 27

Based sa image mo, real yung post pero may "sinadya lang" vibe yung branding
Ano yung real dito:
1. RNTV Philippines Channel - News & Public Affairs - Legit Facebook page yan ng Radiant News Network Corporation, cable/IPTV provider sa Visayas.
2. One TV - Totoo yan. Rebranded channel ng RNTV. Focus nila "balita, drama, kasiyahan at serbisyo publiko" based sa cover photo.
3. Channel 25 Himamaylan, 26 & 27 Kabankalan - Yan talaga channel numbers nila sa Negros Occidental area.
4. "Ngayon naka-air na sa buong Visayas" - Part ng rollout nila.
Yung "sinadya lang" part:
Yung "one tv" logo + "Ka-Bida" wording. Sinadya nilang gayahin yung style ng One PH/One News ng Cignal/TV5. Para magmukhang national cable channel. Marketing move lang para mas catchy.
So hindi fake news, pero "inspired" yung branding nila sa big networks para mas recognizable.
Nasa Bacolod ka ngayon diba? Wala pa ata sa Bacolod City yung One TV. Sa Himamaylan at Kabankalan pa lang sila Channel 25-27.
Gusto mo i-check ko kung meron na sila sa Bacolod area?



Yung screenshot na pinost mo? Hindi edited yung format - legit FB notification yan ng "updated their cover photo".
Pero yung cover photo mismo ng RNTV, hindi ko ma-verify 100% kung original nila yan or may in-edit na part.
3 ways para malaman kung real yung post:
1. Check mo yung page directly - Search mo "RNTV Philippines Channel" sa Facebook. Kung nandun pa rin yung cover photo with "one tv" + "Ka-Bida", real post nila yan.
2. Tingnan mo yung engagement - May likes/comments ba? Fake pages usually 0 engagement or puro spam comments.
3. Url ng page - Official page ng Radiant News Network Corp yan. May blue check or "News & Media" category.
Red flags kung edited/fake:
• Malabo/misaligned yung text
• Walang pixelation sa logo na "one tv"
• Ibang font sa "NGAYON NAKA-AIR NA SA BUONG VISAYAS"
Sa itsura ng image mo, malinis naman yung graphics. Most likely real cover photo yan ng RNTV - ginawa lang talaga nilang "One TV" para tunog national network.

minority leader siya. Ni minsan hindi siya nag-attend. Ex-officio siya dapat pumirma siya sa chairman's report. Hindi siya pumirma kasi nakita niya, ilan sa mga kasamahan niya ay tatamaan dun sa Blue Ribbon. True enough, 'yun ang mga kumampi sa kanya, 'yung mga may mga kaso kinampihan siya kaya siya naging Senate president."

Ipinagtanggol ni Senate President Alan Peter Cayetano ang naging hakbang ng majority bloc kaugnay ng umiiral na sigalot sa Senado, na tinutulan ni Sen. Risa Hontiveros at sinabing isang pang-aabuso ang naturang paggamit ng mga patakaran sa Senado.

Ginamit nila 'yung parliamentary tool na walkout para hindi matuloy ang pag-change of rules. So ngayon, ang majority, ginagamit ang rules sa tama, morally and legally, to ensure na hindi agawin ang mga committees para maqtuloy ang hearing ng Blue Ribbon sa Thursday (June 4) at ang iba't iba pang mga importanteng hearing sa bawat committee.

Abuse iyang sinasabi niyang paggamit ng parliamentary rules ng Senado.
Hindi po namin hinahadlangan ang anumang pagdinig ng komite basta nasa tamang paraan... and the number will always be for themselves. Habang ganito ang bilang namin, kami ang minority.
Dapat si Senate President at ang majority, matapang na harapin ang mandato o ang kakulangan ng mandato ng buong Senado dito sa floor.
